

MUSIC PROFILE OF BHARATHI JAYARAMAN:

Bharathi Jayaraman is a Carnatic vocalist currently based in Houston. She has been learning Carnatic classical music since the age of 4 under various gurus in Jamshedpur and Mumbai. She commenced her tutelage under Smt. Vidya Harikrishna in 2005 (Disciple of late Smt. TR Balamani, then Padmashri T.V. Gopalakrishnan), also with whom she has undergone Advanced Classical Training. She has also briefly learnt Hindustani classical music for 7 years from Shri Vishal Kamble in Mumbai, with whom she had the opportunity to commercially record songs in several languages for some private albums. Bharathi has won many Carnatic & Hindi light music competitions on Inter-College and State Levels (Mumbai and later in Singapore). Between 2007 - 2014 she has given vocal recitals (kutchcheris) in numerous sabhas and temples all over Mumbai, Navi Mumbai. Bharathi has also performed under various orchestra banners in Mumbai & in Singapore at the notable Srinivasa Perumal Temple, Singapore Indian Fine Arts (SIFAS Kalavaibhavam Festival) & Esplanade Concourse (between 2017 - 2020). She has featured as a vocalist and creative concept head for Singapore Indian Raga Lab (Carnatic & Film music Fusion project) and collaborated with Syama School of Music for their Tapas Lab (Carnatic Acapella Project) in Singapore. She has also taught carnatic music to students for several years.